

Stacey & Bryce

Although Stacey and Bryce had known each other since high school, the pair didn't begin dating until sometime later. For the proposal, Bryce popped the question as the couple were enjoying a walk on Mount Cook while holidaying in New Zealand. Stacey and Bryce were married in a beautiful garden ceremony held at Bryce's parents' property in Bunya with their close friends and family in attendance. The reception took place at Rydges South Bank Brisbane on the Level 12 Rooftop, which boasts breathtaking views of Brisbane CBD. The bride looked lovely in a white silk one-shoulder gown from Paddington Weddings, while her sister and only bridesmaid also looked elegant in a peach coloured dress. Instead of a traditional wedding cake, the couple opted for a tower of chocolate mud and lemon cupcakes with buttercream icing and a chocolate torte cake on top. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon exploring Tasmania, where they enjoyed several nights in a gorgeous cottage in Coles Bay eating amazing food and drinking plenty of wine.

"Try not to stress, enjoy the preparation and anticipation and make time for some pampering and time out before the big day."
