

QUEENSLAND Wedding & Bride

Lisa & Daksh

WEDDING DAY

Daksh proposed to Lisa while they were on a trip to India. At their hotel near the Taj Mahal, he took her to a small tower within the hotel's grounds. Overlooking the silhouette of the ancient icon, Daksh asked Lisa to marry him. The couple were married in an intimate winery ceremony. After the rainy nuptials the couple received a wonderful surprise when a bright rainbow appeared while the pair was having their photographs taken. The reception followed immediately after, where the couple and their 40 guests enjoyed canapés and drinks while a string quartet played. With most of their guests flying in from Ireland and India, the days following their wedding were spent with family and friends from far away. After all the excitement of their wedding the couple jetted to Europe where they explored some of the most beautiful cities in the world.
